Dr. Daniel Gambino Named California Chiropractic Association “Doctor of the Year”

San Diego-based DC also honored with Distinguished Service Award

SAN DIEGO – Dr. Daniel Gambino was named California Chiropractic Association (CCA) “Doctor of the Year” at CCA’s annual convention in San Diego last weekend. Dr. Gambino, based in San Diego, presently serves as Membership Chair for CCA, the statewide, non-profit organization of chiropractic doctors and allied organizations. Dr. Gambino also received CCA’s Distinguished Service Award.

“Dr. Daniel Gambino truly embodies the mission of CCA: doctors of chiropractic as the providers of first choice for wellness and the optimization of health,” said Dr. Matt Hubbard, CCA President. “He is a leader in the chiropractic profession both locally and at the state level, spearheading successful efforts to grow CCA’s ranks while at the same time serving his community through his commitment to health and wellness.”

“I am honored to be recognized as CCA’s Doctor of the Year,” said Dr. Gambino. “Chiropractic is not just a job, or a profession or a career; it’s my lifestyle. It’s the place from which I live and breathe and I am grateful to be able to give back to my community and my state.”

After graduating with dual degrees in Biology and Human Nutrition from Plattsburgh State University of New York, Gambino worked as a fitness trainer at the Exercise Training Center in Manhattan before graduating from Life Chiropractic College (now Life University) on a rugby scholarship.

Dr. Gambino is an active member of the California Chiropractic Association and licensed in 6 states including Colorado, California, New York, New Jersey, Georgia and West Virginia. Dr. Gambino is active with the Life University Alumni Association, the LIFEforce1000 Program and the Life University Rugby Program, ranked in the top 5 in the country for the past several years..

Together with his spouse of 23 years, Dr. Kim and Dr. Dan have three fantastic boys who have grown up with chiropractic care. He is an avid lecturer and program speaker, teaching the public and other doctors through fun, interactive workshops. He recently moved to San Diego to bring the message of chiropractic to the sick and suffering. For more information on CCA, please visit www.CalChiro.org.
