St. John the Baptist Diocesan High School to Host Annual Men of Vision Gentlemen's Dinner at View in Oakdale Honoring Two Men who have Made Significant Contributions to SJB

WEST ISLIP, NY – St. John the Baptist Diocesan High School will honor two men who have made significant contributions to the school over the years at its annual Men of Vision Gentlemen's Dinner. All proceeds will benefit St. John's Visionary Fund. This dinner will be held at View in Oakdale on Tuesday, June 17th at 6:00 pm.

Honorees include;

Robert DiOrio, of West Islip, Independent Financial Consultant, will be the recipient of the Jack Lessing Meritorious Service Award for his long term commitment to St. John the Baptist.

Joseph Vacca, of Amity Harbor, Operations Manager, Loyal Building Services, will be the recipient of Men of Vision Gentlemen's Dinner Award for his commitment to the enhancement of the academic and extra-curricular environment at St. John the Baptist Diocesan High School.

Robert DiOrio has been a dedicated Parent, Volunteer and Benefactor. He has been a vital part of the St. John the Baptist community ever since his children entered the school. He is the proud parent of two graduates: his son Austin '06 and his daughter Lynn '10. As a member of the school's Board of Advisors, he has been part of several programs contributing to the school's success. Robert is also an active volunteer for many of the school's fundraising events.

Joseph Vacca directs the dedicated team who maintain all of St. John's daily operations. Over the past 20 years, he has been a tireless worker who always ensures that the physical needs of the school are met.

Tickets for the dinner and sponsorship opportunities are available by contacting the Development Office at (631) 587-8000, extension 177. Tickets can also be purchased at www.sjbalumni.org or www.501auction.com/sjbmov2014.

About St. John the Baptist Diocesan High School

About St. John the Baptist Diocesan High School: 1,700 students attend St. John the Baptist DHS, a college preparatory Catholic High School located on the south shore in West Islip. As part of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, St. John's offers a value-centered education that recognizes the unique talents and abilities of each child, while fostering a school environment that challenges students to reach their true potential. Open since 1966, St. John's offers a rigorous curriculum and extensive activity and athletic programs. Students have the opportunity to take numerous Advanced Placement classes and 99% of St. John's graduates continue on to higher education.
