

The Class of 2017 Is Ready To Advance

by Amanda Liu '17 & Rebeka Bonilla '17

On Saturday, June 3, 2017, Valedictorian Jillian Hubert and Salutatorian Stephanie Lechki represented the Class of 2017 at the podium at the Colden Auditorium of Queens College during Molloy's historic 125th graduation ceremony.

Both girls converged on the idea of taking the lessons that we've learned from Molloy, and the abilities that we've acquired, to take on the world and make a difference in the future.

Hubert recognized that our version of success belongs "in a life of purpose, in a life replete with meaning, character and confidence." She expressed that "with every act of profound character and genuine confidence, we each choose to live a life that matters," and encouraged her peers to "take what we have...and create a life that both overflows with character and confidence." When asked for further comment by The Stanner, Jillian shared some advice for underclassmen: "Enjoy every moment! Hard work and determination never cease to produce fruitful results. As the assignments pile up, never forget to take time to appreciate the uplifting and positive environment Molloy provides." This could also apply to our class now that we will all be freshmen again soon.

challenge the most deeply rooted beliefs, and our one ripple can amount to a giant wave of change."

In the fall, Jillian will be attending Wagner College and Stephanie will be attending Tufts University. Similarly to other years, St. John's and Adelphi Universities will have high numbers of Stanners from the Class of 2017 in attendance. A full list of the colleges that our class will attend this fall can be found on page 4 of The Stanner.

The Class of 2017 has worked tirelessly to achieve their goals and make their dreams become realities. However, we did not do this alone. The college guidance team, Mr. Esgro and Mr. McGuinness dedicated so much time and made sure to help each senior in every way they could, and every teacher, guidance counselor, and coach has shaped us along the way. The road to graduation has been long, and at times, very difficult, but we've finally made it to the finish line! Like Jillian said, "The world rests in our hands." Congratulations Class of 2017!

~Non scholae sed vitae~

Jillian Hubert '17 & Stephanie Lechki '17.

Lechki believes that throughout our years at Molloy, "we have had the privilege to accept and understand lessons that are vital to our success in life." She also believes that "our spark of curiosity can become a cure for cancer, our questions can

Teachers Say Farewell to Class of 2017

“Congratulations on all you have accomplished. It has been a pleasure getting to know many of you this year, especially 4G, 4H, my brilliant Peer Group Leaders, those I met in Esopus, and others who have been kind enough to reach out to me. Thank you for teaching me how to speak conversational teen, for all the laughs, and for your guidance during my first year here as a counselor. I will always remember you fondly and look forward to welcoming you back. Hope your future is ‘lit.’” - Mrs. Callagy (Dab)

“Congratulations to the Class of 2017 the world awaits you! To my softball grads thank you for so many wonderful moments.” - Coach Lou Santos “Congrats to all of the graduating Theater Arts and Improv, Senior Show, and Stanner Players members! Thank you for a memorable four years on and off stage, and thank you for helping to build Molloy’s theater to where it is today!” - Ms. Winters

“You will be remembered for your warm and caring personalities. A special thank you to all my Peer Leaders. Wherever you matriculate, the college or university will be blessed with your presence.” - Brother Eugene Birmingham

“May the road rise up to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face; the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again, May God hold you in the palm of His hand. An old Irish blessing for each and every one of you! Congratulations and best of luck for your next adventure. Go Stanners!” - Dr. Leslie Poole Petit

“There are so many memories to think about from SMILE Groups in 304 & 206 to Strawberry picking w/ I A.M. Green upstate; from Anime Cons in Boston to SMCS trips to DR, Jamaica, & Arizona; and from Peer Groups in the Cave to Beach Clean-ups in the Rock; and to all the foodie parts of the various SMILE, PGL, & I AM Green trips like Shake Shack, Levain Bakery, Pies ‘n Thighs, Ample Hills Creamery, & more, I want to thank you all for taking chances, taking risks, seeing that there is Something More In Life’s Experience, & overall “buying in” to what it means to be a Stanner. We’ll miss you & we look forward to your visits where we hear about how you perhaps miss Molloy, but are loving your new experiences. Best of luck, take your vitamins, & keep being green!” - Doc “How could I not say good-bye to the amazing seniors who call me ‘DeNotes’, who say that they will ‘miss me yelling at them in the library’, and who will miss ‘hanging out’ in the library. The warm and inviting atmosphere in our library comes from all of you! You will be missed greatly! I’ll remember our Senior Encounters together with love in my heart! Your spirit is forever part of the energy we share at Molloy and Esopus! ‘The Actualization of a Dream Begins with the Hope that it is Possible!’ I say to you, ‘It is possible! Now go forth into the collegiate world and make your dreams come true!’ xoxo - Ms. DeNoto

Amanda Liu proudly paved her way at Molloy. Well rounded musically and academically, Amanda has been a devoted NYHQ volunteer, Mathlete, Spirit Leader, Band member, and writer on our very own Stanner newspaper. Attending Molloy has impacted her life greatly giving her friends and teachers she’ll always remember and teaching her lessons she’ll never forget – like being on time for band practice. To Amanda, the highlight of her time at Molloy would be “getting into NHS because that was the end result of three years of hard work and dedication.” Amanda shared her gratitude for teachers like Mr. Power and Mr. Klimas who assuaged the menacing subject of math for her, and even turned it into a enjoyable learning experience. Aside from the books and pencils, Amanda’s time spent with friends— especially at the Senior Encounter— was the cornerstone of her Stanner days. Now looking to the future Amanda hopes to fulfill her love of travel via studying abroad in college while pursuing pharmacy at St. John’s University.

Rebeka “Becks” Bonilla has proved that one can achieve absolutely anything, so long as they try their hardest. Playing soccer since freshman year, she proves to be more than an athlete while she led sophomores as a Peer Group Leader. Rebeka says she is “so grateful to be part of such an amazing program. Being with my fellow PGL’s and connecting with the sophomores makes me so happy!” Passionate to learn and try new things, she became the only female student to be on this year’s chess club. Beck’s long list of achievements don’t end there, having been also a member of our very own Stanner Newspaper family, allowing her to “explore [her] love of writing”. The always “laughing and very bubbly” student will take her exquisite writing skills with her as she attends The Fashion Institute of Technology to focus on fashion journalism. Although excited to start her new journey she will miss all the friends she made at Molloy, “I’ll miss my friends that are juniors and sophomores who I’ll leave behind. I’ll miss being the only girl in chess club and having the guys making me laugh till I can’t breathe.”

David Kemp has been a devoted member of the Anime Club, Environmental Club, and the Theatre Arts and Improv Club. David should be a familiar face to most Stanners for his roles in numerous Stanner theatrical productions. A memory that will always stay with David was set during “Alice in Wonderland” when he, along with Paul Tibo, had to improvise an entire scene in front of a live audience precipitating “one of the scariest and exciting moments in [his] theater experience.” The Stanner Players have become a “second family” to David. In his own words, “It has been one of the most influential things in my life and I will miss it greatly.” Aside from theatre, David holds a love for singing. Most recently, one of David’s greatest dreams came alive after becoming the first Stanner to make the NYSSMA All-State Chorus. Off the stage, David has built lifelong friendships and connections, forming him into “the best person he can be.” His love for the stage will bring him to the gates of L.I.U. Post to pursue a BFA in musical theater and hopefully one day to Broadway. Though he dreams of his name in big letters and lights, David will always be a Stanner at heart.
