As you descend along Palm Sunday Road, you will visit the Sanctuary of Dominus Flevit, built on the spot where Jesus wept over the foreseen destruction of Jerusalem in 70 CE.

The Hosanna Road also takes you through the Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus spent a night in prayer after Judas' betrayal.

Enter the Old City through the arch, also known as the Lion's Gate, which marks the beginning of the Via Dolorosa.

On a walk along the Way of Sorrow, you will see notably the Church of St. Anne (a Crusaders' sanctuary from the 1130s); the Pool of Bethesda (where Jesus healed an invalid); the Antonia Fortress built by King Herod; the Ecce Homo Arch ("Behold the Man," per Herod's words); and the Lithostrotos (pavement) where Jesus was mistreated by Roman soldiers.

Christian quarter walking tour

Set out on a stroll through the Old Jerusalem district known as the Christian Quarter.

Visit to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre

Visit Jerusalem's most sacred Christian sanctuary, which stands on the hill believed to be Golgotha, or Calvary, site of the Crucifixion. Within the church, a chapel known as the Edicule was built over the tomb traditionally regarded as the Tomb of Jesus, site of the Resurrection.

Visit to the King David Street Souk

A well-known market (souk) lines King David Street, where souvenir seekers can find something to please every taste.

Visit to the Israel Museum to view the Model of Jerusalem in the Second Temple Period

Discover the State of Israel's largest cultural institution, set on a 20-acre campus. It's a treasure trove of precious artifacts, with sections devoted to the fine arts, Jewish Art and Life, and archaeology.

You will view notably the fabulous model created in 1966 by Professor Avi-Yonah, who used pale limestone to represent Jerusalem in 66 CE, under Roman rule, and before the destruction of the Second Temple.

Mt. Zion walking tour

Thursday 2/22

Jerusalem

Excursion to Bethlehem: Local Guide, Manger Square, Visit to the Basilica of the Nativity, Visit to the Chapel of the Milk Grotto, Shepherds' Field

Meals included: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 7: Excursion to Bethlehem

Excursion to Bethlehem

Enjoy an excursion to the birthplace of King David and Jesus. Bethlehem is also the city where David was anointed king by Samuel and where his ancestors Ruth and Boaz were married.

Local Guide

A local guide will accompany your group during your excursion.

Manger Square

How often have you heard about this city square, in history books or on the news, especially on religious holidays? It's named after one of its most sacred sites, the Manger in which Jesus of Nazareth was laid to sleep on the day of His birth.

Another prominent landmark is the Mosque of Omar, first built in 1229, and rebuilt in 1860, near a site hailed as the burial place of King David and King Solomon. Thus the three great monotheistic religions coexist in Bethlehem as they do in Jerusalem.

Visit to the Basilica of the Nativity

On Manger Square, visit the Basilica that houses the Grotto of the Nativity, the Birthplace of Jesus Christ, a sacred site which is the world's oldest continuously used place of worship.

Visit to the Chapel of the Milk Grotto

A short walk from the Basilica of the Nativity, enter the Franciscan chapel built over the Grotto where the Holy Family sought shelter during the Slaughter of the Innocents.

Prayer service or Mass will be subject to availability and group's schedule for the day

Shepherds' Field

In the vicinity of Bethlehem, you'll see the site where, as the King James Bible tells us, there were shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

Day 8: Excursion to Masada and the Dead Sea

Travel to the Judean desert's natural fortress of Masada, which has been described as a site of majestic beauty and as one of the greatest symbols of the ancient kingdom of Israel.

Masada cable car up the hill and walk down on the Roman Ramp

Ride up to the Herodian fortress built on top of an isolated rocky promontory. There, in 74 CE, 960 Jewish rebels withstood three months of siege by 15,000 Roman soldiers, and in the end chose death over surrender.

Your walk back down the hill will take you along the path known as the Roman Ramp.

Masada Excavations

See the excavated ruins of palaces and baths, of an ancient synagogue and of a chapel built by Byzantine monks.

Sightseeing stop at the Dead Sea

Continue to the lowest place on earth.

Dead Sea Float!

Wade in Yam Hamelach (the Sea of Salt), where water evaporates faster than it can be replenished by the River Jordan. It's salty, so you'll float easily! And you may reap health benefits as both water and mud are hailed for their healing properties. This sea isn't really dead: despite the elevated salt level, minute forms of life are sustained by freshwater springs on the seafloor.

In this valley, as the Bible tells us, a young shepherd slew an invincible giant. Not far away, the Israelite warrior Shimshon was betrayed by a beautiful Philistine woman, who cut off his hair, source of his strength.
